

Andrew faced significant challenges in the past two years and has worked hard to overcome these challenges while maintaining his wonderful sense of humor. He likes to listen to the radio, watch movies, and put puzzles together. He likes word searches and spending time with family.