

Charles first came to CAMP as a camper and soon realized he was ready to take on a greater challenge. He expressed interest in joining the summer staff and applied for a dishwasher position. Although there are challenges, he is learning new ways to deal with problems and is working to achieve his maximum potential. Charles is a great addition to the kitchen staff. Charles loves fishing, music, and dancing.