

Jonathan is nominated as the Achiever of the Year for his numerous areas of improvement this past school year. After many weeks of consistent practice and hard work, Jonathan is able to hold scissors properly and cut straight with black lines on the paper. He has made tremendous improvement in his penmanship and basic math skills. Jonathan's social skills have greatly improved and he has now made several friends. He participates in classroom discussions, outdoor activities, and library trips without any reminders to speak clearly or to use proper voice volume. Jonathan likes Star Wars, Spiderman, Batman, basketball and dancing.
