

Julian has consistently worked on his independence at his day program and his group home. He always has a positive attitude and is always willing to help others. Julian is a member of SALSA and Playmakers. In his spare time, Julian enjoys hanging out with his friends and watching the Spurs.