

Mariana has dedicated herself to improving her writing skills and she consistently works toward her goals. She has successfully held the same job for over 7 years at Fiesta Texas where she stocks merchandise. She also has been vital in helping her elderly grandmother around the house. Mariana enjoys babysitting her niece twice a week. She goes to the mall, restaurants, listens to music and talks on the phone with her friends.