

Marilyn is an extraordinary woman. She excels at math problems and crossword puzzles, but doesn't limit her time to just those things. She attends The Arc 5 days a week and participates in all social events. At The Willows, Marilyn is popular among the other residents, as well as the staff. Her sense of humor and running fashion commentary, centering on the colors of clothing, is a favorite part of the day. . Her favorite things about herself are her laugh and ability to talk to people. Her favorite person is her mother and her favorite activity is going to the movies with her best friend. Marilyn is an asset to her community with her gift of gab, her laugh, and her ability to find humor in anything.
