

Mario has a great attitude. He is always happy and ready to meet and greet everyone at the Arc. Mario made an immediate well-adjusted transition from High School to his Day Program. He enjoys learning new activities and games and is always eager to share.