

Neil Pulunsky is nominated as an Achiever of the Year in recognition of his volunteer work in the community. Neil has helped with Life Enrichment activities at The Arc's West Avenue location and at community events such as the Arc's annual gala and the Fiesta River Parade. Neil also volunteers 3 times a week at the Jewish Community Center where he puts centerpieces together, gives tours, stuffs envelopes and helps stack books in the library. Neil collects autographs from famous people like President Obama and Congressman Charlie Gonzales. He also collects hats. Neil loves to dance, especially the cumbia, tango, samba and meringue. He also likes to dance to country & western music.