

Desiree has increased her participation in daily and group activities with her peers and is easily redirected. She likes to listen and dance to Tejano music and enjoys looking at books.